Join me for a warming winter course that takes us back to the Roman occupation of Britain.
See the sites and museums through an archaeologist's eyes.

20 Jan: Introduction & Setting the Scene: the Invasion and Occupation of Britain

27 Jan: The Military Presence. Understanding the ruins and remains of the Roman Army in Britain and its impact on the locals.

3 Feb: A New Urban Way of Life – The Romans introduced us to city life: What did that new life involve and what does the archaeology tell us

10 Feb: Through the Keyhole – Roman Villas enjoyed a golden age in Britain. Enter the homes of the richest Romans and discover how their ruins and the finds associated with them enable us to meet their owners and discover more about their lives.

17 Feb: Beyond the Glass Case – The Roman world was a material one, full of luxuries, fashion and the products of a vast empire.

Avoid 'museum exhaustion' by knowing what to look for and how to spot the 'special' finds.

As an archaeologist, I have worked on Roman sites in the UK and Italy. Let me share with you the impact that the Romans had on our lives in Britain.

Discover and discuss just how much they influenced us in virtually every aspect of our modern lives

And find out how to get the most from artefacts and days out on sites.

We shall explore what happened when, what life was like, where to go, what to look for and how to recognise the remains and finds from each era.

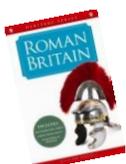

Let me bring the Romans to life for you!

Cost just £45 for the five sessions.

Refreshment break at half time of each session.

Please bring £2 for your tea/coffee and biscuits provided by the hotel. Thank you.

Gillian's book, Roman Britain, will be available for sale during the course. Price £5.99

Booking essential – spaces limited
